TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE WEEK

HONOLULU, October 21.—Charles K. Stillman, Jr., married Californian Mrs. Mroff last night.

BERLIN, October 21.—Victories for Austrian arms over Italians reported from the southwest front, by a correspondent of the Taggeblatt. Italians losing heavily, have fled at many points, leaving piles of dead.

President Wilson and Pope Benedict interfered with the arrangements and the Kaiser has stopped execution of nine nurses in Belgium charged with aiding wounded soldiers of Allies to escape. Execution postponed.

Believed here Great Britain will soon seek peace.

LONDON, October 21.—Serbs have been rolled back by enemy on all fronts. Bulgars took Sultan Tepe and 2000 prisoners and then marched towards Kumanova. British deny cutting of railroad, but report is reaffirmed. Separate force of 20,000 soldiers has invaded Montenegro through Austrian provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., October 20.—Sergeant Tommie Evans, of Honolulu has won the national individual medal in National Guard shooting match. He will be a member of the All-National Guard team. Sergeant Ho is near top.

TOKIO, October 20.—Twelve aviators appeared in Japanese army maneuvers for the first time yesterday.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—United States will prevent as far as possible other factions than Carranza's receiving munitions of war from the United States.

LOS ANGELES, October 20.—Harry Duncan, alleged auto thief and slayer of a policeman, has been captured in Pasadena.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 20.—Mark Sullivan, editor of Colliers is here to investigate the condition of Japanese laborers.

FORT SMITH, Ark., October 20.—Seven defendants in moonshine cases convicted, and one acquitted. Government believes ring is now broken.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—Admiral Winterhalter will represent the U. S. navy at the coronation of the Japanese emperor.

LONDON, October 20.—Sir Edward Carson stated today that he had resigned on account of the division of views regarding near-east question.

According to the Evening News steps will be taken to stop the sudden rush of able-bodied Britons of military age to the Colonies, the islands of Guernsey, Jersey and Ireland.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—President today signed proclamation declaring the United States neutral as regards the war in Serbia and Bulgaria.

LONDON, October 20.—Eight Bulgarian forces have entered Serbia. Claimed Teuton and Bulgarians have effected a junction west of Semendria and south of Belgrade. Germany is planning a separate campaign against Montenegro, intention being to send force through Austrian provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Strong campaign against Allies' forces which landed at Gulf of Enos to enter Balkans, is planned by Turks in cooperation with Bulgarian forces. Bulgarian forces are concentrating on the Roumanian and Greece frontiers.

LONDON, October 20.—Italy has dispatched a naval squadron under sealed orders for near east waters. Supposed it will assist in covering land operations of Allies on Turkish soil in the gulf of Enos.

Shortly after Italy's proclamation, one came from Petrograd. Austro-Germans and Bulgarians made much headway yesterday in attacks on Serbia. Bulgarians cut Nish-Salonika railroad. Allies continue to land troops at Salonika. Greece has been notified there will be no cessation of debarkation of land forces there. News received with much favor here. This notification is considered ultimatum to Greece.

STOCKHOLM, October 20.—Five German ships sunk in Baltic in past twenty-four hours, and one made useless following torpedoing early yesterday morning.

Pilot stations reported last night that British had sunk four more. LONDON, October 20.—The British submarines have so devastated commerce in the Baltic and terrorized Teutons that transports are being held back by the Germans. Lord Kitchener and the French ambassador met with war committee of the cabinet twice yesterday. Purpose of the meetings not revealed, but believed situation in the Balkans was discussed. Conscription also figured in deliberations. It said that Beresford wants king to prorogue parliament and to take command of forces in field.

JERSEY CITY, October 20.—Woman suffrage snowed under in this state by 10,000 majority.

BROWNSVILLE, October 20.—Ten Mexicans believed to be implicated in the destruction of a train near here, have been caught and killed. Poses are pursuing those who survive. Serious race war may result between Americans and Greasers as a result of crime.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Exports to Europe for first two weeks of October amounted to $76,000,000. Two thirds of this was munitions of war contraband. Supplies for Russia awarded to United States, amount to $56,000,000.

LONDON, October 20.—British firm of glass makers has been notified by Sir John French that its plant in France, now within German lines, has been destroyed by accident, and with it a Zeppelin and entire crew.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—Half a billion dollars will be spent by the United States for new ships for navy. 186 vessels of many types, exclusive of sixteen submarines, will be built, and are now contracted for.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—Secretary Lansing sent letter to Carranza representative here in which United States recognizes Carranza, chief defacto government of Mexico.

BROWNSVILLE, October 19.—Mexican bandits who wrecked train made escape. Case developing serious aspect. Possibility race war. Rumored men are followers Dela Roza, leader of so-called Texas revolution.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 19.—Tom Taggart acquitted of conspiracy charge.

TOKIO, October 19.—Grand naval review took place in Tokio bay yesterday.

Minister Adachi arrived home yesterday and given reception. SAN FRANCISCO, October 19.—Thousands of citizens at Ferry building yesterday welcomed Thomas Edison.

Unless miracle happens Seals will win coast pennant. HONOLULU, October 19.—Shingle has written Governor Pinkham Hilo Traction Co. sell bonds for less than 6 per cent. Other provisions in governor's letter satisfactory to Shingle.

LONDON, October 19.—Sudden illness forces Asquith into brief retirement. Said to be temporary.

Italy today formally declared war on Bulgaria carrying out pact of Entente powers in standing by each other when any member of alliance is attacked. Not known whether Italy will send troops to Serbia.

STOCKHOLM, October 19.—British submarine succeeded in torpedoing German vessels Pernambuco and Lolderham off Oxeloesund on Baltic. Lolderham kept afloat because of wood cargo. Both vessels bound for German ports.

LONDON, October 19.—Serious difference in cabinet overshadows military difficulties. In minds of public difficulty arose over conscription and near-east question. Debates enforce military service received so much antagonism by union leaders and diplomatic reverses in Balkans said to have caused the friction. Removal of General Hamilton in command of British in Gallipoli, received with mixed feelings as is the appointment of General Munro to succeed him. Allies decide to send reinforcements to press Balkan campaign.

LONDON, October 19.—Developments in the Balkans yesterday satisfactory to Allies. Serbia force invading Macedonia captured the Bulgarian town of Strumitza. Bulgarians suffered a severe reverse at one point in Northern Serbia, where they invaded. Bulgarian line at Vlasina has been pierced, and Serbians are holding own elsewhere.

Von Mackensen is meeting with resistance in northern Serbia. It is expected Serbians will be able to hold Germans in the vicinity of Belgrade or Semendria. Both will be eventually compelled to fall back. Morava line is being daily strengthened.
